

Department for Theology and Studies
Lutheran World Federation
Box 2100, Route de Ferney 150
CH 1211 Geneva 2, Switzerland

Return to address at the left, or via fax: ++ 41 22 791 6630, or via e-mail:
liesch@lutheranworld.org

RESOURCE PERSONS IN THEOLOGICAL AND RELATED AREAS
(Please print)

Full name

Current title and/or position

Institutional affiliation

Street address

City/state/code

Country Citizenship

Phone (work)..... (home)

Fax e-mail address.....

Church membership

Male Female Lay Ordained Other (specify)

Fluent in: English German French Spanish

Advanced academic work (degree, institution, date):

Area of specialization, with any thesis/dissertation title:

Relevant positions held in the past:

Area of current interest and research:

Publications (list a few that you consider most representative of your interests):

(Over)

I have expertise in the following areas, and would especially be interested in:

participating in an e-mail discussion group on questions the LWF faces in this area (mark "A"), being in contact with LWF-member churches who face critical questions in this area (mark "B"), attending and participating in a consultation related to this topic (mark "C"), making a written contribution on this topic for use within the LWF (mark "D"):

-authority and use of the Bible
-implications of Lutheran theology
-work of the Holy Spirit
-spirituality/worship life
-church authority and structures
-dialogue/mission in multifaith contexts
-environmental sustainability
-ethnic tensions and violence
-human rights
-family, sexuality, same-sex relationships
-ethics of technology (genetic, information et al.)
-effects of globalization
-poverty and affluence
-ecumenical dialogue

Other challenges the LWF should consider addressing:

Please send me a list of recent Department for Theology and Studies publications

Signed:

Date: