

THE LUTHERAN
WORLD
FEDERATION

A Communion of Churches

lutheranworld.org

ARCHBISHOP DR PANTI FILIBUS MUSA

President of The Lutheran World Federation

Archbishop Dr Panti Filibus Musa is an ordained pastor and theologian from The Lutheran Church of Christ (LCCN) in Nigeria who currently serves as the Archbishop of the LCCN. He was elected President of The Lutheran World Federation in Windhoek, Namibia, in 2017.

President Musa has a broad range of experience with The Lutheran World Federation (LWF), having served in various positions between 2002 and 2013, including Area Secretary for Africa, Director Department for Mission and Development and that of Deputy General Secretary.

He is married to Ruth Filibus, a pastor of the LCCN. They have three adult children and seven grandchildren.

Church and Work Experience:

- President, LWF, (2017 to present)
- Archbishop, LCCN (2017 to present)
- Bishop, Mayo Belwa Diocese, LCCN (2013 to 2016)
- Deputy General Secretary, LWF (2012 to 2013)
- Director, Department for Mission and Development, LWF (2010 to 2013)
- Area Secretary for Africa, Department for Mission and Development, LWF (2002 to 2010)
- Provost Bronnum Lutheran Seminary Yola, Adamawa State, Nigeria (1998 to 2002)
- Lecturer, Bronnum Lutheran Seminary, Yola, Adamawa State, Nigeria (1993 to 2002)

Education:

- Luther Seminary, St. Paul, Minnesota, Doctoral Degree in Philosophy (1998)
- Theological College of Northern Nigeria, Bachelor's Degree of Divinity (1992)

Updated, March 2022.