Commemorating the Reformation

We belong indeed to a privileged generation: it has been given to us, people living in this time of history, to commemorate the 500th anniversary of the Reformation. Standing on the shoulders of those who preceded us, we give thanks for the many gifts that the Reformation has brought to the churches. Rooted in the apostolic faith and nurtured by God’s Spirit, we are taken to the threshold of the next 500 years.

This commemoration of 500 years takes place on Namibian soil. We are joined by multitudes of our local sisters and brothers. As has been true for the whole Assembly, our Namibian hosts once more overwhelm us with their love and welcoming embrace.

Together, we represent Lutheran churches from all over the world. Together, we witness to the tangible ways that today Reformation is indeed a global citizen. The Reformation message of liberation by grace alone has traveled around the world and in doing so, has transformed the hearts and minds of those who were found by Christ. The good news of justification by faith alone continually announces that God grants new life not because of who we are or what we do but because of who God is and what God does.

In reaching out to new people around the world, the Reformation itself was transformed. New cultures, new worldviews and languages, new songs, tunes and expressions have shaped it and give it today its global profile. The worship that we celebrate will give a taste of this amazing diversity, which makes the LWF communion rich, colorful and beautiful.

We worship together with representatives from our sister churches with whom we have been engaged in ecumenical dialogue for many years. Their presence reminds us of our roots: to be Lutheran is to be ecumenical. We are all part of an on-going reformation that continues to evolve and renew itself to the point that the conflicts that characterized so much of our interaction with other churches during past centuries is now to be left behind.

The presence of our ecumenical guests fills our hearts with thanksgiving for what God has done among us, and reminds us in powerful ways that we are all different branches of the same vine. We celebrate our worship with a deep sense of ecumenical accountability, always remembering that there is much more that unites us than divides us.

This Reformation Commemoration, as well as the entire Assembly, is a special moment to gather in prayer, seeking God’s guidance in discerning the journey that lays ahead of the LWF communion. Nurtured with bread and wine, Christ’s body and blood, we receive strength and hope that invites us to step boldly into the next five hundred years and continue to be joyful witnesses of God’s liberating grace. Because God is alive, Reformation is ongoing. Because God still wants all to find life in abundance, where justice, peace and reconciliation prevail, God’s mission is ongoing.

We are indeed a privileged generation: At the crossroads of the rich history with memories filled with gratitude for those who preceded us and who persevered in faith, we are at the same time invited into a story still to be written, confidently walking into the future that God has prepared for all of us.

Thanksgiving and hope, rooted in history and open towards the future – may God grant us a blessed commemoration of the Reformation anniversary.

2 No strength of ours can match his might!
We would be lost, rejected.
But now a champion comes to fight, whom God himself elected.
You ask who this may be? The Lord of hosts is he!
Christ Jesus, mighty Lord, God’s only Son, adored.
He holds the field victorious.

3 Though hordes of devils fill the land all threat’ning to devour us, we tremble not, unmoved we stand; they cannot overpower us.
Let this world’s tyrant rage; in battle we’ll engage!
His might is doomed to fail; God’s judgment must prevail!
One little word subdues him.

4 God’s word forever shall abide, no thanks to foes, who fear it; for God himself fights by our side with weapons of the Spirit.
Were they to take our house, goods, honor, child, or spouse, though life be wrenched away, they cannot win the day.
The Kingdom’s ours forever.
We're liberated by God's grace. We're liberated by grace. The Son of God redeemed us on the cross, we're liberated by God's grace. Creation not for sale, humans are not for sale, salvation is not for sale. Creation not for sale, humans are not for sale, for God's salvation is not for sale.
GREETING

LWF President Bishop Munib Younan: Welcome! Welcome in the name of Jesus Christ who gathers us here from every part of the world. Welcome to this liturgy of Word and sacrament in which we commemorate the 500th Anniversary of the Reformation! Welcome to our ecumenical guests. Welcome to the representatives of Windhoek and Namibia! Welcome to those who have traveled from nearby countries to be here today. Would you please stand and be recognized. Welcome to everyone coming from the church of Namibia. Would you stand so we can see all of you. Thank you for all your support to make this day possible.

The 500th Anniversary of the Reformation is commemorated in an age of ecumenical accountability. We receive the many fruits of the Reformation and we repent for our wrong doing and division. We engage a spiritual and theological challenge: telling our story from a perspective of unity, not division. The Joint Commemoration in Lund, Sweden marked this new beginning as we move forward in common witness and service with our sisters and brothers in the Catholic Church and other denominations. And now, today, here in Namibia, all of us together, we are a sign that the Reformation is indeed ongoing and a global citizen.
Song: Reamo leboga

LWF General Secretary Martin Junge: As we processed into the stadium, we sang A Mighty Fortress, a musical banner of the Reformation down through the centuries, a musical foundation in which Lutherans have identified and taken refuge. Martin Luther based his hymn on Psalm 46, which affirms over and over again that God alone is our refuge, not our music, not the signs of our identity, not our name “Lutheran,” but God alone. Luther’s hymn directs us to God’s Word alone, which paradoxically calls for dismantling the walls and fortresses we would build. We are liberated by God’s grace and not by a fortress. The new song from Namibia joins Luther’s in pointing us towards the next 500 years, towards a future, which we Lutherans boldly affirm is not for sale.
Now we will hear the stories of how God has worked through Lutherans of many times and places. We will be reminded that we are part of both a great heritage and a global communion. The seven testimonies from all the LWF regions speak to the witness of Lutheran churches in many contexts and cultures. Here are stories of encouragement and inspiration. As we listen, we remember the beginnings of faith: we are made new through baptism, washed in the waters of regeneration. We give thanks to God who calls us in this time and place to be God's people full of grace and truth.

Thanksgiving for Baptism

Presider (at the font): Holy God:

Thanks be to you for in the beginning your Spirit moved over the waters and you created heaven and earth. By the gift of water you nourish and sustain us and all living things. Praise be to you for all the waters of this earth! In the waters of the Jordan, your beloved child Jesus was baptized by John and anointed with the Spirit. All creation praises you.

➔ Sung response: Gloria en lo alto a Dios (refrain)

By the baptism of his own death and resurrection, Jesus has set us free from bondage and has opened to us a whole new creation. Your Word calls all human beings into this freedom. Praise be to you for all those who have responded to your call, Martin and Katharina, and the many witnesses throughout the centuries who live out their baptismal calling in all parts of the world. By your word, you save us from our sin, making of us a new people, turned to your way of mercy, justice, and love.
Sung response: Gloria en lo alto a Dios (refrain)

Thanks be to you for your creative Word by whom new life springs into being. In baptism, you have lifted the burden that oppresses us. Salvation is declared through the forgiveness of sins and reconciliation. In obedience to your mercy, we go forth making disciples in this new creation, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Sung response: Gloria en lo alto a Dios (refrain)

We now continue our worship as we come before God in adoration.
Psalm 130 with Kyrie

Out of the depths, we cry to you O Lord! Hear our voice! Let your ears be attentive to the voice of our supplications!

⇒ Sung response: Lord have mercy

If you, O Lord, should mark iniquities, who could stand? But there is forgiveness with you,

⇒ Sung response: Lord have mercy

Hope in the Lord! For with the Lord there is steadfast love. With you, O God, is great power to redeem.

Apostolic Greeting

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

And also with you!

Prayer of the Day

Let us pray.

(brief silence)

God, renewer of life and only reformer, you surround us with a great cloud of witnesses throughout time and place whom you have called into your work, witnessing to your Gospel of liberation by grace alone. Continue now to raise up witness for your work of renewal and reform that we may all grow more deeply into that mystery of communion that is your church. Come now and sustain the on-going reformation of your church. We ask this all through your child Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

Amen.

Children’s Choir: First verse of the Soli
1st Reading: Jeremiah 31:31-34

A reading from Jeremiah:

The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt—a covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, says the Lord. But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, “Know the Lord,” for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the Lord; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.

Word of God! Word of life!

Thanks be to God!

Children’s Choir: Second verse of the Soli
Psalm 51

› Read alternately using the hymn verses as antiphon

› Hymn: Kosketa Jumalan

2. Kosketa, Jumalan Henki, Kosketa, kirkkaus! Anna elämälle suunta ja tarkoitus.

4. Valaise, Jumalan Henki, silmäni aukaise, että voisin olla ystävä toisille.

2. Touch me, God's Spirit eternal. Touch me, resplendent Light. Give my life new meaning, show me the true and right.

3. Spirit of God, give me courage, banish my doubts and fears. Show me my vocation through all my days and years.

4. Spirit of God, brightly shining, open my eyes to see those who need my friendship: join us in unity.

5. Touch me, God's Spirit eternal. Teach me to thank and praise. By your grace be near me, guide me in all my ways.
Have mercy on me, O God, according to your steadfast love; according to your abundant mercy blot out my transgressions. Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.

Hymn: Kosketa Jumalan, verse 1

For I know my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me. Against you, you alone, have I sinned, and done what is evil in your sight, so that you are justified in your sentence and blameless when you pass judgment. Indeed, I was born guilty, a sinner when my mother conceived me. You desire truth in the inward being; therefore teach me wisdom in my secret heart.

Hymn: Kosketa Jumalan, verse 2

Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean; wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow. Let me hear joy and gladness; let the bones that you have crushed rejoice. Hide your face from my sins, and blot out all my iniquities. Create in me a clean heart, O God, and put a new and right spirit within me.

Hymn: Kosketa Jumalan, verse 3

Do not cast me away from your presence, and do not take your holy spirit from me. Restore to me the joy of your salvation, and sustain in me a willing spirit. Then I will teach transgressors your ways, and sinners will return to you.

Hymn: Kosketa Jumalan, verse 4

Deliver me from bloodshed, O God, O God of my salvation, and my tongue will sing aloud of your deliverance. O Lord, open my lips, and my mouth will declare your praise.

Hymn: Kosketa Jumalan, verse 5

For you have no delight in sacrifice; if I were to give a burnt offering, you would not be pleased. The sacrifice acceptable to God is a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.

Silence

Children’s Choir: Third verse of the Soli
2nd Reading: Romans 1:16-17

A reading from Paul’s letter to the Romans:

For I am not ashamed of the gospel; it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who has faith, to the Jew first and also to the Greek. For in it the righteousness of God is revealed through faith for faith; as it is written, “The one who is righteous will live by faith.”

Word of God! Word of life!
Thanks be to God!

Testimony

In times of oppression and persecution, women baked big breads and hid the Bible within them. They were able to smuggle the Bible to Christians wherever they might be. Scriptures kept circulating and helped communities remain steadfast in faith.

Gospel Procession with Alleluia
Gospel: John 8:31-36

The Holy Gospel according to John

_Glory to you, O Lord_

Jesus said to those who had believed in him, “If you continue in my word, you are truly my disciples; and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free.” They answered him, “We are descendants of Abraham and have never been slaves to anyone. What do you mean by saying, ‘You will be made free?’” Jesus answered them, “Very truly, I tell you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not have a permanent place in the household; the son has a place there forever. So if the Son makes you free, you will be free indeed.

Sermon – Bishop Zephania Kameeta

⇒ _Hymn of the Day: Nun danket alle Gott_ (see p. 23)
1. Nun danket all’ Gott, mit Herzen, Mund und Händen, der große Dinge tut an uns und allen Enden, der uns von Muttersleib und Kindesbeinen an way with countless gifts of love, and noch jetzt und getan.

2. Der ewigreiche Gott woll uns bei unserm Leben ein immer fröhlich Herz und edlen Frieden geben und uns in seiner Gnad erhalten fort und fort und uns aus aller Not erlösen hier und dort.

3. Lob, Ehr und Preis sei Gott dem Vater and dem Sohne und Gott dem Heiligen Geist im höchsten Himmelsthron, ihm, dem dreiein’gen Gott, wie es im Anfang war und ist und bleiben wird so jetzt und immerdar.

2. O may this bounteous God through all our life be near us, with ever joyful hearts and blessed peace to cheer us; and keep us still in grace, and guide us when perplexed; and free us from all ills, in this world and the next.

3. All praise and thanks to God the Father now be given; the Son, and him who reigns with them in highest heaven; the one eternal God, whom earth and heaven adore; for thus it was, is now, and shall be evermore.
Apostles’ Creed

Do you believe in God the Father?

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

was crucified, died, and was buried;

he descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again;

he ascended into heaven,

he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

⇒ Sung Response: We believe Maranatha light of the day

Do you believe in the Holy Spirit?

I believe in the Holy Spirit,

the holy catholic church,

the communion of saints,

the forgiveness of sins,

the resurrection of the body,

and the life everlasting. Amen.

⇒ Sung Response: We believe Maranatha light of the day
Intercessory Prayer

Entrusting all things to the Triune God, let us now pray for the world, the church and all those in need.

1. Let us pray, brothers and sisters in Christ, for the holy church throughout the world.

» Silent prayer.

Praise be you O God who calls and sends out your disciples and servants to proclaim the joy of the Gospel to all the ends of the earth. Strengthen your church that it continually proclaim your Good News in and out of season. Hold us and our ecumenical partners, encourage and embolden us in common witness. Especially, we pray for our sisters and brothers in. Come Holy Spirit!

» Sung Response: Mhepo iyapuki

as taught by Jackson Wahengo: Oshikwanyama: Namibia

Come, Ho-ly Spir-it, come, Ho-ly Spir-it, come to be in us.

Fye-o-twe-ku pu-bwa Mhe-po-i-ya-pu-ki. i-la-u-ka-le mu-fye.
We have need of you. Come, Ho-ly Spir-it, come to be in us.
2. Let us pray and give thanks for Reformation.

Silent prayer.

Praise be to you O God for your Word alive among us. We are liberated by your grace! Praise be to you for the many guiding theological and spiritual insights that we have all received through the Reformation: the living contact with the Holy Scripture, the catechisms and hymns, for the priesthood of all baptized believers and their calling for the common mission of the church. Root us always in your Word, Christ alone and guide us in your way: faith alone, grace alone, Scripture alone! Come, Holy Spirit!

Sung Response: Mhepo iyapuki

3. Let us pray for forgiveness.

Silent prayer.

O God of mercy, we lament that even good actions of reform and renewal had often unintended negative consequences. We bring before you the burdens of the guilt of the past when our forbearers did not follow your will that all be one in the truth of the Gospel. We confess our own ways of thinking and acting that perpetuate the divisions of the past. Forgive and heal us. Come, Holy Spirit!

Sung Response: Mhepo iyapuki

4. Let us pray for all our sisters and brothers.

Silent prayer.
God of love, your son Jesus reveals the mystery of love among us, strengthen that unity that you alone sustain in our diversity. Transform all complacency, indifference and ignorance, pour out a spirit of reconciliation. Turn us to you and to one another. Bring us together at your eucharistic table. Come, Holy Spirit!

Sung Response: Mhepo iyapuki

5. Let us pray for justice.

Silent prayer.

God of all, you have created all people equal. Enable us to work for the dignity and respect of every human being. Help us to recognize our deep connectedness to all people. Human beings are not for sale. Free those who suffer from exploitation, whether through harsh work conditions or unemployment or other forms of oppression. Come, Holy Spirit!

Sung Response: Mhepo iyapuki

Silent prayer.

God of peace, bend that which is inflexible, the barriers that divide, the attachments that thwart reconciliation. Bring peace in this world, especially in [countries, places]. Protect, guide and strengthen our host nation Namibia, its peoples, its churches, its government and institutions. Open for them paths of abundance, equality, justice and peace. Come, Holy Spirit!

Sung Response: Mhepo iyapuki

7. Let us pray for God’s creation.

Silent prayer.

God creator, convert us from greed and the exploitation of your creation that groans from abuse. Creation is not for sale! Change our way of living in order to leave a healthy planet to future generations. Come, Holy Spirit!

Sung Response: Mhepo iyapuki

8. Let us pray for those are sick and abandoned.

Silent prayer.

God, rock and fortress, protect refugees, those without homes or security, all the abandoned children. Help us always to defend human dignity. Heal those who suffer from illness, poverty, loneliness and exclusion.
Sustain the elderly. Hasten justice for those suffering under the power of evil. Give new life to all. Come, Holy Spirit!

⇒ Sung Response: Mhepo iyapuki

9. Let us pray for women and for the younger generations.

⇒ Silent prayer.

God of ever-new beginnings, affirm and support women in their call to ministry, guiding your church. Guide us through their vision and through the vision of our young people who already now engage an on-going reformation. Come, Holy Spirit!

⇒ Sung Response: Mhepo iyapuki

10. Let us pray and give thanks for on-going reform in church and world.

⇒ Silent prayer.

Praise be to you O God for the good transformations and reforms that were set in motion by the Reformation and by struggling with its challenges. Praise be to you for those who have worked and keep working bringing your Gospel message – salvation is not for sale – to all peoples. Sustain your on-going transforming power among us. Lead and guide us in an on-going Reformation continually awakening, affirming and strengthening the faith of all people. Come, Holy Spirit!

⇒ Sung Response: Mhepo iyapuki

We entrust to you all these prayers in the confidence that you O God listen and respond! Amen.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Preface

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, through our Savior Jesus Christ.

He was shown forth to all nations, in the waters of the Jordan you proclaimed him your beloved Son, and in the miracle of water turned to wine he revealed your glory.

And so with the whole communion of saints, gathered through all times and from all the corners of this planet, with Peter and Paul, with Mary and Elizabeth, with all the saints who have hoped for your day, with all of creation, from the desert of the Namib to the mountains of the Andes, from the Ombalantu baobab tree to the tiniest dandelion, from the Nile to the Yangtze to the Ganges to the Euphrates to the Rhine and the Amazon and the Mississippi rivers, from the rising of the sun to its setting, the works of your hands shout for joy and together with all the choirs of angels we sing an unending hymn.

Eucharistia

Thanks and praise be to you, O Lord, with our whole heart.
Great are your works, studied by all who delight in them.

Your righteousness, O God, endures forever.
You have gained renown by your wonderful deeds; you are gracious and merciful.
You formed the cosmos out of chaos, creating humankind and entrusting them with your work.

You refused the sacrifice of Isaac, a child.
You saved the Israelites, bringing them through the waters.

Miriam led the faithful in song and dance.
Ruth's faithfulness saw in the distance your child, Jesus.
Hannah's song prepared Mary for your birth.
Jonah spent three days in the pit of the whale, waiting your deliverance.

Dry bones rattled and you breathed life into them.
The three youth trusted you before the things of this world and danced with you in the blazing furnace.
Wisdom continues to cry out in the streets that all may heed your gift.

You have always been mindful of your covenant, the promise made for a thousand generations.
You open your hand, and all are filled with good things.
You provide food for those who fear you; you are ever mindful of your covenant.
Words of Institution

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: “Take and eat: This is my body given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

Anamnésis

With this bread and cup we proclaim the redemption you sent to your people:

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again!

You have commanded your covenant forever. Holy and awesome is your name.

Epiclesis

Come now O Holy Spirit! Bless us and these your own gifts of bread and wine that your praise may ever be on our lips and in our hearts and your justice touch all lives, all cities and nations, and all of creation.

Invitation to the Table

Taste and see that the Lord is good!

For communion you are invited to go to a station near you. The server of the bread will place the wafer in your hand. Keep the bread in your hand. Then move to the server with the cup. When you are in front of the cup, you dip the bread briefly in the wine and then eat it. If it is your tradition, you make the sign of the cross, or say Amen.

We are coming, Lord, to the table. We are coming, Lord, to the table.

1. With the gift of bread, we are coming, Lord. With the gift of wine, we are coming,

2. To receive the bread, we are coming, Lord. To receive the wine, we are coming,

Leader

Oh, sing it over.

1. We offer you the gift of bread. We offer you the gift of wine.

2. We're coming to receive the bread. We're coming to receive the wine.

Oh, we are coming, Lord. Oh, we are coming, Lord.

Post-Communion Prayer

Holy God, in this meal you give us a foretaste of that day when all will gather together in peace, when justice will embrace all the earth. Send us forth to make known your saving deeds and to proclaim the greatness of your mercy; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.
SENDING

Benediction

Praise be you, O God, you are the hope of all the ends of the earth and of the oceans far away!

Amen!

Praise be you, O God, who blots out our transgressions, who answers prayer and to whom all peoples come!

Amen!

Praise be you, O God, your paths overflow with plenty and you cover all the earth in mercy.

Amen!

Holy God, Three in One, Father, Son and Holy Spirit (+) bless and preserve you, this day and all days, now and forever!

Amen!

⇒ Closing Hymn: Lobe den Herren (see p. 45)

Dismissal

Go in peace to love and serve God and neighbor!

Thanks be to God!

⇒ Recessional Hymn: Siyahamb’ (see p. 46-47)

⇒ Brass Band and Local Choirs
1. Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!
   O my soul, praise him for he is your health and salvation!
   Let all who hear; Psalter und Harfe, wacht auf. Lasset den Lobgesang hören.

2. Praise to the Lord, who o'er all things is wondrously reigning and, as on wings of an eagle, uplifting, sustaining.
   Have you not seen all that is needful has been sent by his gracious ordaining?

3. Praise to the Lord, who will prosper your work and defend you; surely his goodness and mercy shall daily attend you.
   Ponder anew what the Almighty can do if with his love he befriend you.

4. Praise to the Lord! Oh let all that is in me adore him.
   All that has life and breath, come now with praises before him.
   Let the Amen sound from his people again.
   Gladly forever adore him.
