Friday Morning Prayer, Ecumenical Centre
07 November 2018

World Council of Churches – Lutheran World Federation

This week in the Ecumenical Prayer Cycle, we are praying with the people and churches of Myanmar and Thailand.

“PRECIOUS IN GOD’S EYES”

From 25 November, the International Day for the Elimination of Violence against Women, to 10 December, Human Rights Day, the 16 Days of Activism against Gender-Based Violence Campaign is a time to galvanize action to end violence against women and girls around the world.

By being part of the 16 Days Campaign, faith communities say NO to human trafficking, rape, domestic violence, child and forced marriage, honour crimes, female genital mutilation and other types of abuse and violence and say a YES to life with dignity, justice and the basic right to live a life safe and protected, embraced by God’s wings and mercy.

Gathering (Psalm 36:7)

L: How precious is your steadfast love, O God!
 All people may take refuge in the shadow of your wings.

A Litany of Lament

Hear us, Jesus Christ, when we cry to you for all the women and girls who are precious in God's eyes, who are precious in their own eyes and are precious to one another. God of love and mercy, help us to see in each other a precious gift of God; receive us under your wings as we seek refuge and protection.

We cry out to you: bring justice!

For the young girls given or sold in marriage, and for unwilling brides with no way out:

We cry out to you: bring justice!

For the women raped as a weapon of war and for the children they bear in grief and shame:

We cry out to you: bring justice!

For the victims of rape who are killed or take their own lives, and for the rape survivors who live with its scars:

We cry out to you: bring justice!

For the girls denied access to education, told they are stupid or worthless or expendable:

We cry out to you: bring justice!

For the girls and women sold or tricked into the sex trade, and for sex workers exposed to disease and violence,

We cry out to you: bring justice!

For the women trapped in destructive relationships,

manipulated, controlled, justifying their abusers:
We cry out to you: bring justice!

For the women who hide their bruises and lie about their injuries for fear of the next attack:
We cry out to you: bring justice!

For the women bullied in their workplaces,
belittled, underpaid, threatened with losing their job:
We cry out to you: bring justice!

For the women attacked because of their sexual identity,
targets for physical or spiritual assault:
We cry out to you: bring justice!

For the women and girls denied religious freedom, forced to submit by custom or law:
We cry out to you: bring justice!

We cry to you, Jesus Christ, for our sisters, our daughters, our mothers, ourselves.
Bring justice. Bring healing. Bring hope. Amen.

Reading Psalm 55.1-14 (If possible, close your eyes and think of a woman who is part of your circle of relations, whom you know and whom you can name, who has suffered violence. Remember her name listen to the words of the Psalm as if it were the voice and words of this woman.)

- 1 Give ear to my prayer, O God; do not hide yourself from my supplication.
- 2 Attend to me, and answer me; I am troubled in my complaint. I am distraught
- 3 by the noise of the enemy, because of the clamor of the wicked. For they bring trouble upon me, and in anger they cherish enmity against me.
- 4 My heart is in anguish within me, the terrors of death have fallen upon me.
- 5 Fear and trembling come upon me, and horror overwhelms me.
- 6 And I say, "O that I had wings like a dove! I would fly away and be at rest;
- 7 truly, I would flee far away; I would lodge in the wilderness;
- 8 I would hurry to find a shelter for myself from the raging wind and tempest."
- 9 Confuse, O Lord, confound their speech; for I see violence and strife in the city.
- 10 Day and night they go around it on its walls, and iniquity and trouble are within it;
- 11 ruin is in its midst; oppression and fraud do not depart from its marketplace.
- 12 It is not enemies who taunt me—I could bear that; it is not adversaries who deal insolently with me—I could hide from them.
- 13 But it is you, my equal, my companion, my familiar friend,
- 14 with whom I kept pleasant company; we walked in the house of God with the throng.

Prayer

Let us pray.

God of love, we give you thanks for the signs of life and hope among us, even though they are tiny and being overshadow by oppressive powers that sometimes seem so strong and dominating. We pray for life giving power we receive from you.

We pray for all people that are courageously struggling to end violence against women.

We pray for all people that are protesting in the streets, squares and churches, remembering those who are not among us anymore.

We pray for men who have not yet learned how to express their emotions and affections and for those who have chosen to dominate through violence; we pray for their transformation and repentance. We pray for your wisdom, guiding and sustaining all men who are courageously seeking help and breaking the cycle of violence.

We pray for all institutions and shelters that are welcoming victims and survivors, or are working with the perpetrators. We pray for all refugees, and for those who are giving their lives in the defense of women human rights.

We pray for all churches that are assuming their prophetic role, denouncing gender based violence.

We pray for love, peace and justice among us.

In Jesus name, who taught us to pray...
