The Ecumenical Commitments document strongly reiterates the Lutheran Communion's commitment to ecumenical spirituality. So today as part of the international launch of this document, we pray together with Christians from different traditions for the unity of the body of Christ.

Let us keep a moment's silence.

1. Je - sus calls us here to meet him as, through word and song and prayer,
2. Je - sus calls us to con - fess him Word of Life and Lord of all,
3. Je - sus calls us to each oth - er: found in him are no di - vides.

Race and class and sex and lan - guage: such are bar - riers he de - rides.
Praise the God who keeps the prom - ise; praise the Son who calls us friends;
Tell his ho - ly hu - man sto - ry; tell his tales that all may hear;
Join the hand of friend and stran - ger; join the hands of age and youth;
praise the Spir - it who, a - mong us, to our hopes and fears at - tends.
tell the world that Christ in glo - ry came to earth to meet us here.
join the faith - ful and the doub - ter in their com - mon search for truth.

4. Jesus calls us to his table, rooted firm in time and space, where the church in earth and heaven finds a common meeting place.
Share the bread and wine, his body, share the love of which we sing, share the feast for saints and sinners, hosted by our Lord and King.

Scripture reading: Ephesians 4:4

We will now read a verse from Paul's letter to the Ephesians. This verse has been an inspiration for the writing of the Ecumenical Commitments.

Let us listen to the Word of God.

Hay un solo cuerpo y un solo Espíritu, así como han sido llamados a una sola esperanza de su llamamiento.

Ein Leib und ein Geist, wie auch ihr berufen seid zu einer Hoffnung eurer Berufung.

Il y a un seul corps et un seul Esprit, de même que votre vocation vous a appelés à une seule espérance.

C: There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope of your calling.

Song: Somos uno (2x in Spanish)

Somos uno

Juan Gattinoni, Argentina

So-mos u - no en Cristo, un cuer-po, miem-bros u - nos de los o - tros.
Ma-ny mem-bers, but one bo - dy; we're one bo - dy in Christ Je - sus.

Music and words: Juan Gattinoni © WCC, 150 route de Ferney, P.O. Box 2100, CH-1211 Geneva 2, Switzerland.

*Nous sommes tous un seul corps en Christ et membres les uns des autres.
Wir sind eins in Christus, ein Leib und bilden ein unteilbares Ganzes.*

The Lutheran World Federation's Commitments on the Ecumenical Way to Ecclesial Communion

This document seeks to promote ecumenism, to give visible expression to the unity of the body of Christ.

The Ecumenical Commitments encourage vibrant interactions between local ecumenical realities and global ecumenical processes. The document promotes bringing forms of ecumenism - such as theological dialogues, diaconal witness, advocacy and shared spiritual life - into closer cooperation. Overall, it is a working document. We encourage you to work with the Ecumenical Commitments, and we very much welcome feedback.

It comes in two parts: The first part offers theological reflections about ecumenism. It looks at the Lutheran understanding of ecumenism and at the LWF's ecumenical relations. The second part is the core of the document. It contains six ecumenical commitments, each of these includes a strong self-commitment to Christian unity as well as suggestions for practical application.

Please stand as you are able to make these commitments together.
