CONVERSATION AT KATHARINA'S TABLE

LWF Women in Church and Society (WICAS) networks worldwide are celebrating the Reformation Day with gatherings in which the contribution to the Reformation's journey by women from the past and women today are:

- Celebrated
- Remembered and embraced
- Affirmed and made visible

LWF WICAS and the English Speaking Congregation of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Geneva cordially invite you to a table talk where Roswitha Golder and Ana Villanueva will bring the voices of Argula von Grumbach, Marie Dentière and contemporary women that have shaped the Reformation path. Martin Junge will share on how LWF encompasses the process to make visible women's participation.
